

REAMOS, SHERWOOD Y. - Born in South Carolina in 1812. In the headright certificate issued to him January 28, 1838 for a league and labor of land by the Board of Land Commissioners of Austin County it is stated that he came to Texas in February 1835. He was a member of Captain James C. Neill's Company in the siege of Bexar in 1835 and of Captain Gibson Kuykendall's company in the early part of the year 1836. On July 1, 1836 he enlisted in Captain H. N. Cleveland's company of Mill Creek Volunteers. Benjamin F. Reaville became captain of the company on August 16, 1836.

Mr. Reamos was issued Bounty Certificate No. 4173 for 960 acres of land August 8, 1838 for having served in the army from September 28, 1835 to May 30, 1836. On August 8, 1838 he also received Donation Certificate No. 501 for 640 acres of land for having been detailed to guard the baggage at the camp opposite Harrisburg, April 21, 1836.

Mr. Reamos was a member of the Texas Veterans Association. He died in 1887 and is buried in an unmarked grave in the cemetery at Buck Horn, Austin, County.

Some of the surviving grandchildren of Mrs. Reamos are John G. Bell, Batson; Mrs. Clara Fabraguze, Devers; and Mrs. Lauella Williams, Corsicana.

REAMS, SHERWOOD YOUNG - The name S. Y. Reams was listed on the 1874 membership roll of The Texas Veterans Association. His age was given as 62. He was shown as having been born in South Carolina; and as having been in the Battle of San Jacinto. (See D. W. Bakers A Texas Scrap-Book, page 611.)

The records in the General Land Office, Austin show that Mr. Reams was among those detailed to guard the baggage at the camp opposite Harrisburg on April 21, 1836 and did not participate in the Battle of San Jacinto.

In the first class headright certificate issued to Mr. Reams January 28, 1838 for a league and labor of land by the Board of Land Commissioners of Austin County, it is stated that he came to Texas in February, 1835. He was a member of Captain James C. Neill's Company in the siege of Bexar in 1835 and of Captain Gibson Kuykendall's Company in the early part of the year 1836. On July 1, 1836 he enlisted in Captain H. N. Cleveland's Company of "Mill Creek Volunteers." Benjamin F. Reavile became captain of the company on August 16, 1836.

Mr. Reams was issued Bounty Certificate No. 4173 for 960 acres of land, August 8, 1838 for having served in the army from September 28, 1835 to May 30, 1836. On August 2, 1838 he received Donation Certificate No. 501 for 640 acres of land for having been detailed to guard the baggage at the camp opposite Harrisburg, April 21, 1836.

Mr. Reams died in 1887 and is buried in an unmarked grave in the cemetery at Buck Horn, Austin County, Texas.

As late as the year 1939 some of the surviving grandchildren of Mr. Reams were John G. Bell, Batson; Mrs. Clara Fabraguze, Devers; and Mrs. Louella Williams, Corsicana.

Inasmuch as the membership rolls of the Texas Veterans Association in 1874 listed Mr. Reams as S. Y. REAMOS that name was put on the bronze plaque in the San Jacinto Monument among those who guarded the baggage on April 21, 1836. Later, however, a signature of this veteran in the General Land Office is definitely REAMS.

On June 30, 1955 Miss Bessie Finklea an employee of the Dallas Railway and Terminal Company, Interurban Building, Dallas wrote a letter to L. W. Kemp, Houston in which among other things she said: "The name should be REAMES. He was my mother's uncle, and the family bible gives his record as being born March 4, 1812 and married to Sarah Atkinson on September 14, 1837."

On February 18, 1956 she wrote: "The 'Y' in his name is for Young." He passed away in the year 1887, but I do not know the date."

Dear Miss Finklea:

In further reference to the spelling of the name REAMOS, REAMS or REAMES. It looks now that we were both mistaken. The name appears on the bronze plaque in the San Jacinto Monument as SHERWOOD Y. REAMOS (Not Sherwood W. REAMES, as you state in your letter of June 30.)

After reading your letter I wrote to Dr. Seymour V. Connor, Archivist of the Texas State Library and asked him to photostat some of the signatures of Dr. Reams. This he did and these I am sending to you with this letter. Please return them to me within a month. You will agree the signatures are S. Y. REAMS (Not S. W. Reams).

The Texas Veterans Association, of which Dr. Reams was a member list him as follows:

REAMOS, S. Y., aged 62 (in 1874) South Carolina; emigrated in 1834; in battle of San Jacinto. Residence, Austin County.

Now, the above was copied from D. W. G. Baker's A Texas Scrap-book, page 611. This book is widely read and copies may be found of it in the Dallas Public Library.

The only thing wrong, except the spelling of the name, is that Dr. Reams was among those detailed to guard the camp opposite Harrisburg on April 21, 1836, and was not at San Jacinto.

Do you know where and when Dr. Reams studied medicine? If so, I'll appreciate it if you will tell me.

What does the "Y" stand for in Dr. Reams' name?

Yours with thanks
