ROBBINS, EARLY - Was probably a son of Early Robbins who was one of the "Old Three Hundred" of Austin's colonists, and who received title to a league of land situated in the present county of Austin, July 19, 1824. In an unnumbered Headright Certificate issued in the name of Early Robbins, deceased, March 3, 1838 for one-twelfth of a league of land by the Board of Land Commissioners for Austin County it is stated that he came to Texas in 1823. Mrs. Mary Robbins was the administratrix of the estate.

The name of Early Robbins, subject of this sketch, appears on page 41 of the army rolls in the General Land Office as a member of Captain Gibson Kuykendall's company. On May 23, 1838 he was issued Bounty Certificate No. 3507 for 320 acres of land for having served in the army from March 20 to April 20, 1836.
