Major Caldwell was issued a certificate for ten leagues of land September 8, 1835 by Grant, Durst and Williams but the grant was nullified by the Republic of Texas.

Major Caldwell was Quartermaster on the staff of the Volunteers at San Jacinto but he did not apply for the 640 acres of land due him for having participated in the battle. He received Bounty Certificate No. 1081 for 960 acres, December 18, 1837 for having served in the army from February 15 to November 20, 1836. He was again appointed Quartermaster for the army by President Lamar, January 11, 1840.

As Major Caldwell, A Dr. Gray, and a Mr. McNuner were entering the town of Victoria from the east August 6, 1840 they were killed by Indians. Joseph A. Rogers was appointed administrator of Major Caldwell's estate October 6, 1840.
