FLICK, JOHN Came to Texas in March 1835. He was a member of Captain George M. Collinsworth's Company at the capture of Goliad, October 9, 1835, and of Captain Moseley Baker's Company at San Jacinto. He did not receive any land for his services in the army.

Thomas Simons, administrator of the estate of John Flick, deceased, appeared before the Board of Land Commissioners of Jackson County, January 20, 1838 and applied for the land due Mr. Flick as a headright. He stated that Mr. Flick had arrived in Texas in March, 1835, unmarried. The estate received a Headright Certificate for one-third of a league of land.
