

B.-

HICKOX, FRANKLIN - Mr. Hickox's name is not shown on the San Jacinto rolls printed in 1836 but both Adjutant General John A. Wharton and Captain Alfred H. Wyly certified on May 16, 1836 that he participated in the battle or First Sergeant of Captain Wyly's company. (p. 40, army rolls in the General Land Office). On page 65 of the Land Office rolls he is shown as a member of Major L. Smith's company, April 5, 1836.

On December 9, 1837 Mr. Hickox was issued Bounty Certificate
No. 856 for 320 acres of land for having served in the army from March 2 to July 23, 1836. He was also issued a donation certificate for 640 acres for having participated in the battle of San Jacinto.
This was lost and on January 31, 1855 a duplicate, No. 668, was issued in his name.

It has not been determined when Mr. Hickox came to Texas. He did not apply for a headright from either the Mexican government, the Republic, or the State of Texas. He was living in Springfield, Illinois, November 9, 1855, when he sold his donation certificate to John Penn.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat, March 3, 1901 carried a statement by Franklin B. Hickox, "a Veteran of San Jacinto" who resided at Farina, Illinois.

HICKS, WILLIAM F. - By mistake the compiler had the name

William F. Hicks put on the bronze plaque in the San Jacinto memorial monument on which are inscribed the names of the Texans who participated in the Battle of San Jacinto. The name should be Charles F. Heck. See the sketch of Mr. Heck in this San Jacinto volume.
