

LOUGHRIDGE, WILLIAM WALLACE - Born in Laurens, South Carolina, November 21, 1816, the sixth child of James and Deborah Ann (McGill) Loughridge. The eleven other children in order of birth were Allen Eccles, Robert McGill, John, Elizabeth, James Franklin, Andrew Jackson, Thomas Lewers, James Rodgers, Samuel Gray and Maria Jane, and Joseph Loughridge.

Mr. Simon P. Ford who served with Mr. Loughridge in Captain William Wood's Company at San Jacinto made an affidavit September 3, 1836 that he, William Loughridge of Greene County, Alabama, Edward Miles and others had arrived at Matagorda, Texas, January 10, 1836, as members of Captain C. V. Vickery's Company.

Donation Certificate No. 1015 was issued to the heirs of Mr. Loughridge February 4, 1840 for 640 acres of land due Mr. Loughridge for having participated in the battle of San Jacinto. This was in compliance with a joint resolution of Congress approved February 3, 1840 requiring the Secretary of War to issue to the legal representatives of William Loughridge, deceased, a certificate for donation land for services in the battle of San Jacinto. Bounty Certificates for services in the army, if issued, are not of record in the General Land Office. His headright certificate was issued to Robert Henry, Administrator of his estate, December 30, 1839. Mr. Henry was appointed Administrator in Robertson County, July 29, 1839.

Mr. Loughridge was never married. His nephew Mr. Jackson B. Loughridge, Johnson City, nephew of William W. Loughridge, wrote to the compiler that his uncle died near Wheelock, Robertson County, but in Brazos County, January 24, 1838. His grave is lost.

Colonel James R. Loughridge, brother of William W. Loughridge, was born in Laurens, South Carolina, November 12, 1821 and died in Navarro County, Texas, November 10, 1886. He was married to ^Mary Felicia Martin who was born at Corn Ridge, Arkansas and died at Corsicana, Texas

Children of Colonel and Mrs. Loughridge were: Mary A. (2) Ella (3) Elizabeth (4) Samuel L. (5) James and (6) Jackson B. Loughridge.

(1) Mary A. Loughridge was married to Calvin Laurie Wilson. They had one child, Calvin, who married Fay Sargent. Mr. and ^Mrs. Loughridge live in Fort Worth. Address in care of the Acme Brick Company.

(2) Ella Loughridge died unmarried.

(3) Elizabeth Loughridge died in infancy.

(4) Samuel L. Loughridge was married to Emma Mitchell. Mr. and Mrs. Loughridge live in Athens, Texas.

(5) James Loughridge died in infancy.

(6) Jackson B. Loughridge lives in Johnson City, Texas. He is unmarried.

LOUGHRIDGE, WILLIAM WALLACE- Following is a record and lineage of William Wallace Loughridge, participant in the battle of San Jacinto, as compiled by J. B. Loughridge, Johnson City, Texas:

He was never married, had no offspring.

Born in Laurens South Carolina November 21, 1816.

The 6th child of James and Deborah Ann(McGill) Loughridge.

The other children in order of birth were:

- (1) Allen Eccles Loughridge Born. Laurens South Carolina June 26, 1808.
Died Altoona Springs Mississippi Sept. 22, 1846.
- (2) Robert McGill Loughridge Born, Laurens S. C. Dec. 24, 1809.
Died Waco Tex. July 7, 1900.
- (3) John Loughridge Born, Laurens C. S. Mar. 17, 1812.
Died Navarro County Texas. Jan 1865.
- (4) Elizabeth Loughridge Born Nov. 13, 1813
Died Giddings Tex. Dec. 14, 1892.
- (5) James Franklin Loughridge Born Sept. 18, 1814
Died Oct. 11, 1815.
- (7) Andrew Jackson Loughridge Born July 25, 1818.
Died Tanglewood Tex. Nov. 19, 1881.
- (8) Thomas Lewers Loughridge Born Dec. 27, 1819.
Died Nov. 1829.
- (9) James Rodgers Loughridge, Born Laurens S. C. Nov. 12, 1821.
Died Nov. 10, 1886 Navarro Co. Tex.
- (10) Samuel Gray Loughridge Born, Coosa Valley Ala. Feb. 19, 1824.

Died Garlandville Miss. June 5, 1907.

(11) Maria Jane Loughridge Born, Coose Valley Ala. Aug. 16 1830.

Died Navarro Co. Tex. Aug. 8, 1864.

(12) Joseph Loughridge Born Mesopotamia Ala. July 13, 1836.

Died Aug. 15, 1840.

Mr. Wm. W. Loughridge came to Texas in January 1836 as a member of Captain C. W. Vickery's Company but served in Captain William Woods Co. at San Jacinto. According to Mr. J. B. Loughridge son of Colonel J. R. Loughridge, Mr. Wm W. Loughridge died about twenty (20) miles south of Wheelock Texas. Jan. 24, 1838. The place at that time was called Brazos.

Donation Certificate No. 1015 was issued to the heirs of Mr. Loughridge Feb. 4, 1840 for 640 acres of land due Mr. Loughridge for having participated in the battle of San Jacinto. This was in Compliance with a joint resolution of Congress approved Feb. 3, 1840 requiring the secretary of war to issue to the legal representatives of William Loughridge deceased, a certificate for donation land for services in the battle of San Jacinto.

Bounty Certificates for services in the army if issued, are not of record in the General Land Office.

His Headright Certificate was issued to Robert Henry, Administrator of his estate, Dec. 30, 1839. Mr. Henry was appointed administrator in Robertson County July 29, 1839 Joseph Johnson was appointed administrator in Washington County April 30, 1838.

James Loughridge (Father of Wm. W Loughridge) was born at Duna-gans Hill Antrim Co. Ireland Aug. 15, 1783 married Deborah Ann McGill in S. C. U. S. A. 1806 Father and Mother (Elizabeth Gray) of Deborah Ann were from Antrim County Families in Ireland.

James Loughridge, died at the home of Mr. John Box in Macogoches County Texas. July 9, 1838. While on a trip to Texas in an effort to reach the bedside of his wounded son William.

James was the son of Allen Loughridge born probably about 1757 who married Sarah Eccles lived at Antrim Co. Ireland.

This Loughridge line is said to be carried backward by a book of geneology from Allen Loughridge to a King of Ireland who reigned over the "Emerald Isle" before Christianity was introduced there.

The Compiler of this has never seen a copy of the book.

Part of the above data supplied by advisory Board of Texas Historians has been corrected and additional matter added thereto by
J. B. Loughridge Nephew of William Wallace Loughridge.

The data concerning the estate of William Wallace Loughridge and the Companies with whom he served, is entirely supplied by the Board of Texas Historians, this compiler having no data at hand on these subjects.