

244

McMILLAN, EDWARD - Born in Ireland in 1814. He was single at the time of the battle of San Jacinto and later received Headright Certificate No. 72 for one-third of a league of land from the Board of Land Commissioners for Robertson County. Having married he was, on March 1, 1838 issued Headright Certificate No. 121 for two-thirds of one league and one labor of land by the Robertson County Board. In this certificate it is stated that he arrived in Texas in January, 1834. He came with his widowed mother, Mrs. Ann McMillan, and her children, Andrew, Frank, and Mary McMillan. Mrs. McMillan settled where the town of Bryan is now located.

Mr. McMillan was a member of Captain James Gillaspie's Company at San Jacinto and on November 16, 1838 he received Donation Certificate No. 603 for 640 acres of land for having participated in the battle. He was issued Bounty Certificate No. 4422 for 640 acres of land November 15, 1838 for his services in the army from March 1 to September 1, 1836. On December 12, 1851 he received Bounty Certificate No. 955 for 320 acres of land for having served in the army from October 27, 1835 to January 5, 1836. The following information concerning him is contained in Comptroller's Military Service Record No. 2466. He enrolled March 9, 1836, and was discharged June 8, 1836, after having served in the companies of Captain John Gafford, Joseph P. Lynch, James Gillaspie, and B. J. Ijans. He entered the service as a ranger in Captain Calvin Bole's Company July 25th and was discharged November 25, 1836.

Mr. McMillan was married to Ann Marjorie McQuiston. Mr. McMillan died in March, 1865 and is buried in the Camp Creek cemetery eight miles east of Franklin, Robertson County, in an unmarked grave. Mrs. McMillan was born in Tennessee, and died in 1879 and is buried beside her husband.

The only surviving child of Mr. and Mrs. McMillan is Noah Warren McMillan, who was married to Lula Daniels. Mr. McMillan resides at 900 Thirteenth Street, Ballinger. Other children were James, Robert, Jane, who married F. M. Mullins; Lethy, who married John M. Cook; Cyncia, who married Frank Smith; Mandy, who married Mark Ray; Millie Ann, who married Robert Ray, and Sam McMillan.

Surviving children of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Warren McMillan are Roy McMillan, who resides near Decalb, Texas; Ray McMillan, Franklin; Claude McMillan, Ballinger; Mrs. T. S. Commander, Ballinger; Rev. Eddie W. McMillan, Central Christian Church, Nashville, Tennessee; Mrs. Frank Whittlesey, Wagner, Oklahoma and Mrs. Clifford Mannings, San Angelo, Texas.