

TURNAGE, SHELBY C. - Born at Cheraw, South Carolina. He had three brothers William B. Walker and Henry Turnage.

Shelby C. Turnage came to Texas previous to May 2, 1835, as is shown in the Headright Certificate No. 302 issued to him in 1838, by the Washington County Board of Land Commissioners for a league and labor of land. He was a member of Captain Henry W. Karnes Company at San Jacinto and received Donation Certificate No. 668, dated December 10, 1838 for 640 acres of land for having participated in the battle. He did not apply for the bounty land due him.

Mr. Turnage was living in Washington County, February 7, 1839 when he sold his headright certificate to Joseph S. Hood of San Antonio for $100.00. He died in Washington County in 1843 and on June 6, 1843 William P. Rutledge was appointed administrator of his estate. This is shown in Book B, page 45, Probate Records of Washington County. His widow was married to a Mr. Colly of Gonzales. Mrs. Marinda Colly, sole heir of Mr. Turnage sold Mr. Turnage's Donation Certificate for 640 acres of land March 7, 1853 to Thomas S. Walker for $60.00.

William B. Turnage eldest brother of Shelby C. served in the war of 1812. He came to Texas and settled in Fayette County. A granddaughter of his, Mrs. Josephine Newton lives at Elizabethtown, Essex County, New York.
