

PLEASANTS, JOHN - Name omitted from the San Jacinto rolls printed in 1836 and from the San Jacinto rolls in the General Land Office. On page 43, however, of the Land Office rolls there is a revised list of Captain William H. Logan's men and Mr. Pleasants name is shown on it. Following it is the notation: "In the battle." Comptroller's Military Service Record No. 1873 signed at Goliad, June 6, 1836, by Captain Logan and Countersigned by Colonel Sidney Sherman, reads:

"This certified that John Pleasants joined my company of Volunteers on the 16th April last and from other circumstances I am inclined to believe that he has been three Months in the services of Texas he was in the battle of San Jacinto on the 21st April & has been an efficient & active soldier and is this day honorably discharged."

In the Headright Certificate No. ___ issued to Mr. Pleasants for one league and one labor of land by the Board of Land Commissioners for Liberty County February 2, 1838 it is stated that he came to Texas in February, 1836. On September 28, 1849, Mr. Pleasants received Donation Certificate No. 176 for 640 acres of land for having participated in the battle of San Jacinto. He was living in Galveston, March 16, 1850 when he sold the certificate to M. B. Menard for $55.00. He could not write but affixed his mark to the deed fo transfer.

Mr. Pleasants died at his home on Clear Creek in Galveston County near the Harris County line, probably in 1856.

Children of John and Mary C. Pleasants were Dozier, who was never married, Lesine, who was never married; Duplesier, who married and had a child, Caroline, and another child who died in infancy; Major, who married Edgar Hargraves; Mary M., who married Clem Rivia; and Matilda Pleasants, who married a Mr. Rutledge. Matilda was six months old when her father died, but it has not been determined when he died.

On October 13, 1857 Mrs. Mary C. Pleasants, widow of John Pleasants, was married to Daniel D. Brown in Galveston County.
