Mrs. John F. Schlobohm, 3923 Baden, Houston 22, Texas. Telephone OX 4-4754, advises that John Slaydon on Mr. Kemp's list of San Jacinto Veterans is John Schlobohm and that the mix-up in his name came about because he could not read nor write. And they understood that Slaydon was wounded on the battlefield. He is one of the veterans that planted oak trees around the Capitol at Austin.

Mrs. William Schlobohm, KE 6923 said she understood that one of their ancestors by the name of Schlobohm was in the battle of San Jacinto and that his name was on the monument. She recently moved to Houston and she intends to do further research on Slaydon by writing relatives in New York. We referred her to Mrs. John Schlobohm.
