

SAN JACINTO DAY FESTIVAL AND BATTLE REENACTMENT

SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 2017, 10AM – 6PM. FREE TO THE PUBLIC.

CALL FOR VENDORS

The San Jacinto Museum of History Association is an educational organization whose purposes are to collect and preserve significant historical materials that relate to the early history and culture of Texas and to promote the study of the history of Texas through exhibits, publications and educational programs. The Museum places special significance on interpreting the Texas Revolution, the period of the Republic of Texas and the Battle of San Jacinto. This year marks the 181th Anniversary of the Texas Revolution.

The San Jacinto Day Festival and Battle Reenactment celebrates this battle as one of the most significant events in the history of Texas. The admission-free San Jacinto Day Festival takes place from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on the 1,200-acre San Jacinto Battleground State Historic Site at the San Jacinto Monument. Past events have attracted 15,000 to 20,000 attendees.

We are looking for history-themed individuals and/or groups to participate in the Festival. Vendors fall into these three categories—Commercial Sales; Demonstrators with Commercial Sales; and Exhibitors/Entertainers (new and old).

- Commercial Sales $155.00 per space

Vendors who sell products that reflect our history—for example: historic period clothing, art or photography, travel books, children’s toys, books, and hand-made crafts. NO KNIVES or weapons. Price will increase to $185 after March 31.

- Demonstrators with Commercial Sales $85.00 per space

Individuals/groups who demonstrate historic period activities—crafts—AND have products available to sell. Period dress is encouraged for all vendors; however, period dress alone does NOT qualify for this category.

- Exhibitors/Entertainers No Charge

Exhibitors and entertainers who can demonstrate and display historic items or activities— for example: historic collections; quilting, basket weaving or spinning demonstrations; musical show, and storytelling. No sales. However, there is a $50 signage fee, if first time exhibitor or signage not found.
