

LAMB, GEORGE A. - Born in Laurens District, South Carolina, October 3, 1814. Both of his parents having died, he made his home at the home of Richard and Sarah Nobles Bankhead. In 1834 he came to Texas with Mr. and Mrs. Bankhead and their five children: William Newton, James Marion, Mary Frances, Eady Elmyra and Mary Elizabeth Bankhead, settled in what is now Walker County. Mr. Bankhead died January 17, 1835 (Fulmore, in error says he died October 20, 1834) and on July 27, 1835 Mr. Lamb married his widow.

Mr. Lamb was killed in the battle of San Jacinto April 21, 1836, while Second Lieutenant of Captain William Ware's Company. Donation Certificate No. 625 for 640 acres of land was issued in his name November 26, 1838, due him for having participated in the battle and on October 4, 1838 Bounty Certificate No. 464 for 320 acres was issued, due him for his services in the army from March 1 to April 21, 1836. Lamb County, Texas was named in his honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb had but one child, Susan A. Lamb, born November 1836. She was married to Richard Marion Bankhead, son of George Bankhead.

Children of Richard Marion and Susan A. Lamb Bankhead were Callie Elizabeth, who married Henry Hines; George Francis, who married William Jephtha Fain; Laurisa, who was never married, and Gertrude, who married Jahue Durham.

Mrs. Rowena Lamb Fain Anders, Huntsville, Texas, is a great granddaughter of George A. Lamb. She is a granddaughter of Richard Marion and Susan A. Lamb Bankhead. She is a daughter of George F.

and William Jephtha Fain Bankhead.

Mrs. Sarah Nobles Bankhead-Lamb was on December 17, 1837 married to Jonathan A. McGary.

In 1876 Isaac Kinion Lamb, a brother of George A. Lamb, was living in Lampasas, Texas. On May 15, 1876 Hester Ann Lamb and Rhoda Ann Campbell of Monroe County, Georgia and Azeneth Cunningham of Upton County, Georgia appointed Isaac Kinion Lamb of Lampasas, Texas, their attorney. They stated that the George A. Lamb home had been in Crawford County, Georgia.

The names and addresses of some of the great grand-children of George A. Lamb are J. R. Fain, Bryan; G. E. Fain, Rosenberg; Mrs. R. H. Mize, Iola, and Mrs. Rowena Lamb Anders, Hunstville, Texas.