LEE, THEODORE S. - The compiler, in error, he now (March 24, 1941) thinks, caused Mr. Lee's name to be placed on the bronze plaque in the San Jacinto memorial monument on which are inscribed the names of the Texans who participated in the battle of San Jacinto. Additional evidence found has convinced him that Mr. Lee was among those who were detailed to guard the baggage at the camp opposite Harrisburg, April 21, 1836. See the sketch of Theodore Staunton Lee in the Harrisburg books.
LEE, THEODORE STAUNTON - The compiler, in error, he now (March 24, 1941) thinks, caused the name Theodore S. Lee to be placed on the bronze plaque in the San Jacinto monument on which are inscribed the names of the Texans who participated in the battle of San Jacinto. Additional evidence found has convinced the compiler that Mr. Lee was among those who were detailed to guard the baggage at the camp opposite Harrisburg, April 21, 1836.

Mr. Lee was born in Rutland, Vermont in 1799. In Headright Certificate No. 4 issued to him February 2, 1838 for one third of a league of land by the Board of Land Commissioners for Gonzales County it is stated that he came to Texas in April, 1835. He later received Headright Certificate No. 10 for two-thirds of a league and one labor from the Brazoria county board.

The following is a copy of a Controller's Military Service signed by Colonel John H. Moore at Mina, September 13, 1835:

"I hereby certify that Theodore S. Lee served under my command as a volunteer in the first Division of Troops on the campaign recently conducted against the Whaco (sic) and Touwakana (sic) Indians commencing on the 25th day of July last and ending on the 13th day of September and that he had discharged all the duties of a private in said division, honorably to himself and beneficial to the cause in which he embarked———."

Mr. Lee's name is not on the San Jacinto rolls printed in 1836 or on the San Jacinto rolls in the General Land Office. It appears on page 42 of the rolls as a member of Captain Joseph B. Chance's
Washington Company who was detailed to guard the baggage at the camp opposite Harrisburg, April 21, 1836. Yet, on July 31, 1839 he was issued Donation certificate No. 930 for 640 acres of land for having participated in the battle of San Jacinto.

The following was extracted from Mr. Lee's petition for a pension signed in Gonzales county October 10, 1870 and now in the Pension Papers of the Archives of the Texas State Library:

Mr. Lee said "that he was a soldier in the army of Texas from 25th day of July AD 1835, to the 13th day of September A. D. 1835, in Captain William M. Eastland's company and Colonel J. H. Moore's Regiment; that he served afterwards in different capacities in said Army, was a Q. M. during the year 1836; that he participated in the Battle of Gonzales, Grass Fight, Battle of Concepcion and was at the siege and taking of San Jacinto on 21st April, 1836, being then detached from any command, under special orders of Gen. Sam Houston at which battle he was wounded by receiving a Sword cut in the left hand, having said hand seriously injured and disabled thereby, and that he received said wound while in the military service of the Republic of Texas and while she was engaged in the war with Mexico which separated Texas from Mexico, and that he continued in said service until he resigned as Quarter Master of said army, which resignation was accepted by William S. Fisher, Secretary of War for said Republic, on January 12th, 1837."

Altho there were several veterans of the battle of San Jacinto living in Gonzales county when Mr. Lee asked for a pension he selected for his witnesses Winfield Alford, James L. Mills and Everett Lewis, neither of whom was in the battle. Mr. Alford stated that Mr. Lee was in the army in 1835 but did not say that he had participated in the battle of San Jacinto. Mr. Mills testified that Mr. Lee was wounded at San Jacinto, and Everett Lewis testified that Mr. Lee had told him that he has wounded at the battle of San Jacinto and that he believed that this was true.

Mr. Lee was twice married. After the death of his wife he was married to Hester Sessions. Mr. Lee died in December, 1884 while a member of the Texas Veterans Association. Mrs. Lee was born in Rutland, Vermont and died in Texas in 1888. The State of Texas had a joint monument erected in 1936 at the graves of Mr. & Mrs. Lee in the Hardwood cemetery, Gonzales county.

Mr. Lee was the father of nineteen children but the compiler has been unable to ascertain the names of but one Julia, who married Martin Alonzo Marcee.

Mrs. L. L. Ollre, Gonzales is a daughter of Martin Alonzo and Julia (Lee) Marcee.

I, do hereby certify, under oath say -- that I have known Major T. S. Lee, about 15 years -- he being a resident citizen of the county of Gonzales Texas during that period and have seen a cut in the left hand of said Lee, which he has several years since told me, was received in wounding off a cut made at him with a sabre, by a mounted Mexican Soldier at San Jacinto, wearing the uniform of an officer, who was afterward killed and recognized to be the "Colonel", brother of Genl Cos -- and from the character which said Lee bears with his acquaintances as a truthful man & my knowledge of the man, I believe that said T. S. Lee was so wounded at the battle of San Jacinto -- and do so believe for the further reason, that I do not think he would have reed the appointment of Wurter Master, unless he had been in said battle, & rendered meritorious services appreciated at the time by his contemporaries, the said T. S. Lee, not being a man of any extraordinary, but rather mediocre capacity & ability --
