GREEN, THOMAS —- Born June 8, 1814 in Amalia County, Virginia, a son of Nathan and Mary (Field) Green. Judge Nathan Green was a member of the Tennessee Supreme Court at the time of his death. He and Judge Abram Caruthers founded the Lebana Law School of Lebanon Tennessee.

Other children of Judge and Mrs. Nathan Green were, John A., Sydney, Hal, Alexander, Robert, Nathan, and Anna Green. Anna was married to a Mr. Bowden.

Thomas Green attended first, the University of Tennessee and later Princeton College. In 1834 he studied law. In Headright Certificate No. 38 for one-third of a league of land issued to him in 1838 by the Board of Land Commissioners for Fayette County it is stated that he arrived in Texas in December 1835. On January 14, 1836 he enlisted in the Volunteer Auxiliary Corps of the Texas Army at Nacogdoches. He received Bounty Certificate No. 723 for 640 acres of land December 5, 1837 for serving in the army from January 14 to July 15, 1836. At San Jacinto he was a member of Captain Isaac N. Moreland’s Company of artillery and on August 19, 1836 he received Donation Certificate No. 515 for 640 acres of land for having participated in the battle. In Comptroller’s Military Service Record No. 5820 it is certified that on May 6, 1836 he was appointed Assistant Adjutant General, serving until May 30, 1836.

At the expiration of his enlistment period Mr. Green returned to Tennessee, but came back to Texas in 1837. He was Engrossing Clerk of the Senate of the 6th Congress. In 1841 he was appointed Clerk of the Supreme Court of Texas, holding that position until Texas entered the Union. After annexation, he was appointed Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State, serving until the year 1861.

In 1841 Mr. Green joined the expedition headed by Colonel John S. Moore against Indians on the upper Colorado River. He was Captain of the Travis County Volunteers in the Vasquez campaign and Inspector General of the Somervell Expedition, 1842. At the outbreak of the Mexican war he raised the first company of volunteers recruited in Texas, serving as Captain of a company in Colonel John C. Hays Regiment. Owing to his position as Clerk of the Supreme Court, he was unable to remain permanently with the army.

Captain Green entered the Confederate Army in the war between the states as Colonel of a regiment in Sibley's Brigade and was in action in the battle of Val Verde in New Mexico. He rose to the rank of Brigadier General and was in immediate command of the forces that captured Gaveston, December 31, 1862. He was transferred to Louisiana, where he won many victories. He was killed at Blair's Landing, Louisiana, April 12, 1862. His remains were returned to Texas interred in Oakwood Cemetery, May 2, 1864.
