HILL, ABRAHAM WEBB. Born in Georgia _____. In the Headright Certificate issued to him February 3, 1838, for a league and labor of land, it is stated that he came to Texas in 1835.

Isaac Hill, father of Abraham W. Hill, and five of his six brothers emigrated from England to North Carolina. Isaac moved to Jasper County, Georgia, and settled at a place that was afterwards named for him, Hillsborough. Later he moved to the Cumberland Mountains in Tennessee. He was the father of thirteen children, nine boys and four girls, Benjamin, Harry, Withmond, Isaac, Larry, John, Abraham Webb, Allen, Sally, and four others whose names have not been ascertained.

Abraham W. Webb, according to the information contained in Service Record No. 697, enlisted in Captain Henry W. Karnes' company April 12 and continued in it until July 12th. He was permitted by General Thomas J. Rusk to join the rangers under Captain John G. McGehee and continued until November 12, 1836. He was issued Bounty Certificate No. _____ for 640 acres of land July 5, 1859, for having served in the army from April 12 to November 12, 1836. He was in Captain Henry W. Karnes' company at San Jacinto and on January 7, 1839 was issued Donation Certificate No. 908 for 640 acres of land for having participated in the battle.

Mr. Hill died in Bastrop County in 1884 while a member of the Texas Veterans Association.

Mrs. Eva Hill Karlincy, a descendant of Mr. A. W. Hill lives at Hill's Prairie, Bastrop, Texas.
