BENTON, ALFRED - Born in Dyer County, Tennessee, in 1816, a son of Nathaniel and Dorothy Benton. His father was a son of Nathaniel Benton, an Englishman of refinement and scholarship who had settled with his family at Hillsboro, Orange County, North Carolina. He moved to Dyer County, Tennessee in 1822 and there died in 1830 leaving a widow, 39 years old, and the following children: Nathaniel, aged 15; Alfred, 14; Abner, 11; Susan 7; Hart, 4; Rufus 2, and Macenas Benton, an infant.

Mrs. Benton came to Texas in 1835 with her children and settled in Robertson's colony on the Brazos. Her eldest son, Nathaniel had in the meantime spent two years at West Point.

Alfred, now nineteen years old, promptly enlisted in the army. He participated in the Storming and Capture of Bexar, December 5 to 10, 1835 and was a member of Captain Isaac N. Moreland's Company of artillery at San Jacinto. He was killed in Sabine County, Texas in 1838 but the circumstances connected with his death are not recorded. His mother on November 12, 1853 received Donation Certificate No. 530 for 640 acres of land due him for having participated in the battle of San Jacinto and Bounty Certificate No. 530 for 640 acres of land for his service in the army from October 25, 1835 to July 20, 1836. In the Headright files in the General Land Office it is shown that on November 30, 1878 Thomas Hart Benton was the only surviving heir of Alfred Benton.

Nathaniel Benton, brother of Alfred, was born in Tennessee in 1814 and returned to that state in 1837 to marry Harriet McCulloch, sister of Benjamin and Henry Bostace McCulloch.
Benjamin McCulloch and Alfred Benton had served in the same company at San Jacinto. To Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Benton was born one child, Benjamin Mustace Benton. Mrs. Benton died in 1845 and in 1853 Nathaniel Benton, his son, and his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Benton, returned to Texas and settled near Seguin. Father and son both became Texas Rangers. Nathaniel Benton in the late fifties was married to Jane Elizabeth Harris. He entered the Confederate Army at the outbreak of the Civil War and attained the rank of colonel. He was badly wounded at Fort Hudson. He died in Seguin, 1873 (?) at the home of Henry E. McCulloch and is buried in the Captain Vaughn cemetery in West Seguin. Mrs. Benton died in 1862.

Children of Colonel and Mrs. Benton were - Harriet Janem who married John Donegan, and lives in Seguin; Apner, who married Alice Rogers, and Nathaniel, who married Alice Nichols.

Surviving children of Mr. and Mrs. John Donegan are Thomas Hugh Donegan, Charles Henry Donegan, Mrs. Adolph Weinert, Mrs. O. G. Burke and Miss Cora Lee Donegan, all of Seguin.

Miss Anna Sidway First Citizens National Bank Dyersburg, Tennessee.
...ing children: Alfred, Nathaniel, Abner, Thomas Hart, Macenos, Rufus and Susan. Thomas Hart-Benton moved to Missouri and became one of America's greatest statesmen.

Alfred Benton and his brother Nathaniel came to Texas in 1835 and both served in the army of the Republic of Texas. Alfred participated in the Storming of Bexar, December 5 to 10, 1835, and served at San Jacinto as a member of Captain Isaac N. Moreland's artillery company. His heirs on November 12, 1853, were issued Donation Certificate No. 530 for 640 acres of land due him for having participated in the battle of San Jacinto and Bounty Certificate No. 1405 for 640 acres for his services in the army from October 25, 1835 to July 20, 1836.

An act of the Texas legislature approved August 20, 1856, granted the heirs of Mr. Benton a Headright Certificate for one-third of a league of land. In the Headright file in the General Land Office at Austin is an affidavit signed by Henderson Clark and Albert G. Piler of Dyer County, Tennessee. In it they stated that they were both personally acquainted with Nathaniel Benton, Sr., who lived in Dyer County from 1822 to the time of his death in 1830. They were likewise acquainted with his children and stated that Alfred Benton was killed in Texas in about 1838, unmarried and leaving no heirs except a brother, Nathaniel, and a sister. It is further shown that Nathaniel Benton died in Texas in about 1875 and that on November 30, 1876, Thomas Hart Benton was the only surviving heir of Alfred Benton.

The following letter from Henry E. McCulloch and petition of Mrs.
Dorothy Benton are from the Memorial and Petitions files in the Archives of the Texas State Library:

"Austin January 5th-1856

"Hon John R King

With regard to the claim of the heirs of Alfred Benton deceased which has passed the Senate and is now in your house I can state that I was well acquainted with him know that he emigrated to Texas in 1835 and that he remained in the country until his death in 1838 - That I filed his original discharge in the Adjutant Genl's office and the Certificates of General Burleson that he was in the battle at San Antonio when Milam fell in 1835 and the Certificate of General Rusk that he was in the battle of San Jacinto in 1836 upon which I obtained the bounty warrant of 640 acres and the Donation of 640 acres to which he was entitled for said services which claims are now in the hands of A. B. Stancil for location.

Very Respectfully
Yr Obt Svt
(Signed) H. L. McCulloch."

"To the Honorable Legislature of the State of Texas

Your petitioner would most respectfully represent to your honorably body that she is the mother of Alfred Benton who emigrated to the Republic of Texas in 1835, that he the said Alfred Benton was at that time over 18 years of age, that he engaged in the service of the country which was then struggling for liberty in 1835, that he participated in the battle of San Antonio when the lamented Milam fell, that he also participated in the battle of San Jacinto, that he remained a citizen of the Republic of Texas until he died in Sabine County in 1838, that Donation and bounty land claims have been issued for his military services but that no headright certificate has ever been issued for his headright.

Your petitioner therefore prays that your honorably will grant a bill of relief to the heirs of said Benton and grant them a certificate for one third of a league of land.

Dorothy Benton."
