Coe, Philip Haddock - The name "Philip Cox" appears on page 44 of the Army Rolls in the General Land Office as one of the men of Captain William Ware's company who were detailed to guard the baggage at the camp opposite Harrisburg, April 21, 1836. The compiler believe that the name was intended to be "Philip Coe." No one by the name of "Philip Cox" received land for services in the Army, while on May 15, 1838 Philip Coe was issued Donation Certificate No. 15 for 640 acres of land "for having been detailed to guard the baggage opposite Harrisburg, April 21, 1836."

Philip Haddock Coe was born in Georgia January 10, 1800. In Headright Certificate No. 198 issued to him February 1, 1838 for one labor of land by Washington County Board of Land Commissioners it is stated that he came to Texas before May 2, 1835. On ______ he received title to one league in ___________ colony, situated in the present county of ____________.

In July, 1835 Coe was chosen captain of one of the four volunteer companies organized to assist Captain Robert M. Coleman of Bastrop, with a company of twenty-five men, in dislodging a band of Indians at Tehuacana Springs, the present county of Limestone. The five companies united at Parker's Fort, two and one half miles from the present city of Groesbeck, and organized the whole under one command, electing John H. Moore, at that time captain of one of the companies, commander, with the rank of major, and Joseph C. Neill, adjutant. The company commanders were Philip Coe, R. M. Coleman, Robert M. Williamson, and Dr. George W. Barnett. Arriving at Tehuacana they found that the Indians had fled.
Captain Coe was a delegate to the Consultation in 1835 from the Municipality of Washington and for a time he was a member of the General Council of the Provisional Government. On July 9, 1835 he enrolled as Captain of a company of 12 rangers organized under Colonel John H. Moore. In Comptroller's Military Service Record No. 7944 it is certified that he was acting captain in the First Regiment in March and April, 1836. On May 15, 1836 he was issued Bounty Certificate No. 3377 for 320 acres of land for having served in the army from March 2 to June 2, 1836.

Captain Coe commanded a company on the Somervell Expedition in 1842. He moved early to Gonzales County and settled near the present town of Monthalia in what is now known as Coe Valley. He was married to Eliza Parker who was born in Gonzales County, Texas and died there. Captain Coe died December 14, 1852 and is buried in Coe Valley in Gonzales County. The State of Texas had a monument erected at his grave in 1936.
