RECOGNITION OF SERVICE

Judge Ed Emmett

Ed Emmett is an urban planner and businessman. He served four terms in the Texas House of Representatives and on President George W. Bush’s Interstate Commerce Commission. Later he received a Presidential appointment as special assistant to the Secretary of the Health, Education and Welfare Department. Upon returning to Texas, Mr. Emmett started an international transportation consulting firm. He later held the position of Harris County judge from 2007 to 2019. He has received many civic awards for his service to others.

Jim McIngvale

Jim McIngvale is a successful businessman and entrepreneur. He exemplifies the “Never Give Up Spirit” of the earliest settlers in Texas, which made this great state what it is today. He has often been called “The Unofficial Mayor of Houston” and he has lived his life through the example set by his parents that Living is Giving. He too has often been recognized by many civic organizations with numerous awards for his community service.

The San Jacinto Museum of History is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. Your contributions are welcome and are tax deductible less the fair market value of the dinner and gift ($115 per person.) For your convenience – respond by using the enclosed reply card and envelope.
